THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF WATER RESOURCES (SHRIMATI KRISHNA SAHI): The National Water Policy envisages integrated planning and development of river basins by appropriate organisation required for the purpose.

Escape of a hard core terrorist from police custody in Punjab

2770. SHRI MAHENDRA PRASAD:

SHRI MURLIDHAR CHANDRAKANT BHANDARE:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that one of the top terrorists, Satnam Singh Bawa, an accomplice of Harjinder Singh Jinda, escaped from police custody in Punjab on 9th January, 1988;

(b) if so, under what circumstances Bawa escaped from the police custody; and

(c) how many of the terrorists have escaped from police custody since June, 1984 and how many of them have been recaptured?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS AND THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI P. CHIDAMBARAM): (a) and (b) According to the information furnished by the Government of Punjab the accused was being escorted by a police party in a vehicle on 9th January, 1988, to a place in district Amritsar to effect the recovery of arms and ammunition as per information disclosed by him. When the vehicle reached a drain bridge near village Odar Khurd the police party was fired upon from both sides of the road. The police vehicles were ambushed and badly damaged in firing by the extremists. The accused managed to escape in a car which was parked near the drain.

(c) Seventy five terrorists escaped from custody in Punjab during the period 1st June, 1984 to 21st February, 1988. Of them 17 terrorists have been recaptured.

Constitution of Coffee Board

2771. SHRI D. B. CHANDRE GOWDA: Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state the criteria being followed in appointing the Members of the Coffee Board?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE (SHRI P. R. DAS MUNSHI): Section 4 of the Coffee Act, 1942 and Rule 3 of the Coffee Rules, 1955 provide for the constitution of the Coffee Board and the manner of filling vacancies. The Central Govt. appoints members in accordance with these provisions. The Act and Rules do not however lay down specifically the criterion regarding appointment. The Rules however provide that the Central Govt. may make such consultations as deemed fit before appointment of certain specified categories of members. Accordingly necessary consultations are made with respect to these categories. While making appointments due care is taken to see that only such individuals are appointed members of the Board as are capable of safeguarding the interests that they represent in particular, and provide a sure and positive direction to the Board and its Committees by their contribution.

Export of manufactured products

2772. SHRI PARVATHANENI UPENDRA: Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether experts have suggested that India should shift from exports of non-manufactured goods to manufactured products in order to stabilise its export earnings and achieve industrialisation through exports; and

(b) if so, what is Government's reaction thereto?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE (SHRI P. R. DAS MUNSHI): (a) and (b) It is widely recognised that while traditional commodities, including agricultural products, must make their contribution to India's exports, the major growth in the future would have to come from the manufacturing sector and value added items. Government have taken a series of initiatives designed to generate inter alia surpluses of manufactured good for exports, to induce the production of goods contemporary in technology and competitive in prices and to make the exports profitable.

Nagaland Government's response to Sundaram Committee Report

2773. DR. NAGEN SAIKIA: Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Nagaland Government is agreeable to accept the Sundaram Committee Report;

(b) if not, what effective steps are proposed to be taken in this regard by the Government of India; and

(c) whether it is not binding on the part of a State to accept the opinion of a Commission or Committee instituted by the Government of India for a specific purpose?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI CHINTAMANI PANIGRAHI): (a) to (c) Shri K. V. K. Sundaram went into the boundary problem between the Government of Assam and Nagaland as an Adviser in the Ministry of Home Affairs. When he demitted office, he left behind a record of his studies of the different aspects of the problem. Copies of this study were made available to the then Chief Ministers of the two States in January, 1979 to enable them to identify their differences with reference to the study and endeavour to resolve them to arrive at a mutually acceptable solution. But their differences have been persisting.

As for the steps proposed to be taken in the matter, it may be mentioned that in pursuance of the recommendations of the Shastri Commission which went into the clashes between the police forces of the two States in Merapani area in June, 1985, efforts are under way to appoint a Commission/Arbitrator with the consent of the two State Governments with agreed terms of reference.

Import of insecticides and potassium cyanide through Kandla port

2774. SHRI RAJNI RANJAN SAHU: Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that deadly insecticides and also potassium cyanide are being imported through Kandla port; and

(b) if so, what are the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE (SHRI P. R. DAS MUNSHI): (a) and (b) Raw materials for the manufacture of pesticides, herbicides, acrylic fibre and ABC powder have been imported by industries at Kandla through the Kandla Port for processing. Five units in the Kandla Free Trade Zone manufacture and export pesticides and herbicides utilising imported raw materials. The Ports and Customs authorities have regulated these imports in terms of the Section 38(1)(b) of the Insecticide Act, 1968.
